GUAYAGUIL, November 20th.
There was a fearful explosion to-day at a powder magazine half a mile north of town. It is rumored ten persons were killed, and a church and several houses were nearly destroyed.

LONDON, November 20th.
Kennard (Conservative) is elected member of Parliament for Salisbury, defeating Grenfell (Liberal).

DUBLIN, November 21st.
The remaining four men charged with complicity in the murder of the Joyce family, who have not yet been brought to trial, to-day pleaded guilty, and threw themselves on the clemency of the Crown. They were sentenced to death.

Malley, of counsel, in submitting the plea of guilty, pointed out the gradations of guilt among the prisoners and the mysterious influences of which they were the instruments, and made a pathetic appeal for the men.

The Attorney-General said that, now that justice had been vindicated by sentencing the three principal criminals, he would recommend the others to mercy.

Judge Barry, in passing sentence, informed the prisoners they furnished a terrible example, which he hoped would sink deeply into the hearts of others, of the consequences of joining a secret society. It was not improbable, he said, that some of them had been terrorized into joining the gang who murdered Joyce, and had not taken an actual manual part in the massacre, but persons joining an unlawful enterprise are responsible for the acts of all the parties thereto. So far as he was personally concerned, he should be very glad if those with whom the decision rested could see their way to a merciful consideration of Malley's appeal.

Three of the men sentenced to be hanged for the murder of the Joyce family arrived in Galway this evening under a strong guard. They were hooted at by a large crowd. After the conclusion of the Joyce murder trial, a jurymen who had been one of the armed party which attacked the houses in County Clare, was sentenced to seven years penal servitude.

The prisoners will be hanged December 15th.

QUEBEC, November 21st.
Advices have been received that the steamship Warrmouth, for London, lumber laden, was wrecked during the gale and snow storm on Magdalen Island, Sunday night. The vessel broke in four pieces. The crew all perished except five. The names of the saved are McCauland, Townsend, Martin and Chief Engineer Hutchinson.

The Warrmouth went ashore half an hour after midnight. The gale and snow storm were terrific. The crew hung on the vessel till 11 o'clock yesterday, when she broke up. The crew numbered twenty men. Sixteen were drowned in trying to reach land. The vessel was owned by J. S. Darwick of Sunderland. She did not belong to any line.

WINDSOR, November 21st.
The total number of decorations presented to the troops to-day, including those given to the Indian contingent, was 370.

The Queen, in conferring the decorations, said: "I have called upon you to-day to express my best thanks for the gallantry and devotion you displayed in the late Afghan campaign. In Egypt, and say how proud I am of my soldiers and sailors, who have added fresh laurels to those already obtained in previous campaigns, and of their devotion to their Queen and country."

When the Queen had finished conferring decorations, she presented a medal to Baron Hogenau of the German Ministry, an attaché of the British in Egypt.

LONDON, November 21st.
The formal charges against Arabi Pasha cite articles of the Ottoman penal and military codes. Broadley and Napier, counsel for Arabi, in a public letter, contend that to be convicted under those codes the rebels must have waged war against the Sultan. The letter also declares the prisoners will prove that the Porte approved their action from first to last, and that the Khedive also, long before the commencement of the war, wavered between the foreign party and the Nationalists, but that after the arrival of Derwisch Pasha in Egypt, he acquiesced in the early phases of resistance.

Toward the close of last evening's session of the House of Commons, Gladstone moved an adjournment of the debate on the procedure rules, in redemption of his promise to give Yorke an opportunity to move the appointment of a select committee of inquiry into the release of Parnell, Dillon and O'Kelly from Kilmainham jail. Labouchere by opposing the motion for adjournment, talked out Yorke's motion. Unless the Government gives a satisfactory assurance on Thursday regarding the Arraignment of Rent Act, Parnell will move an adjournment of the House in order to call attention to the threatened failure of the act.

PARIS, November 21st.
To-day the Chamber of Deputies adopted a bill ratifying De Brazza's treaty with the Congo Chief Makoko. Ducloux, President of the Council, said the execution of the treaty could not give rise to any difficulty. He also read the text of the treaty of 1836 with Portugal. He pointed out that it reserved all the rights of France. The government, he said, will shortly ask for a grant of 200,000 francs for the De Brazza expedition, to enable him to establish twelve scientific, commercial and hospital stations along the Congo River.

CITY OF MEXICO, November 21st.
The opening of an important branch of the Mexican Central Railway, which places the great mining region of Guanajuato in communication with this national capital, is being celebrated with great splendor. An excursion was made from Mexico to Guanajuato, representing the government, railroad and commercial interests of the country. Attached to the engine in front was a figure of Liberty holding the torch of progress, and on either side Mexican and American flags. The populations of the towns and cities through which the train moved turned out en masse, and residences all along the route were illuminated. Guanajuato presented a grand spectacle. The streets were crowded with the public garden and alameda profusely decorated with Chinese lanterns, the government buildings, business houses and private residences were brilliantly lighted. There was a fine display of fireworks, a military parade and a grand banquet. The party were guests of the city. A grand ball will be given to-night. The party return to Mexico on a special train on Thursday.

LONDON, Nov. 22nd.
Giffen, President of the Statistical Society, in his inaugural address, took for his subject, "Influence of population statistics upon political thought." He referred to the growth of population in the United States, which, if continued, he said, would cause great difficulties. Masses of laborers would have to contend under increased difficulties against the fall in the scale of living, and probably there would eventually be a diversion of a large part of the stream of emigration from Europe and the Eastern States of America to the northwestern part of Canada.

CAIRO, November 22nd.
A report has been prepared by Jorelli Bey, public prosecutor, in which he summarizes facts directly connecting Arabi Pasha and the other rebel leaders with the burning of Alexandria. It has been submitted to the Khedive and approved, and will be presented to Lord Dufferin. It is understood the Egyptian Government is prepared to leave it to Great Britain to decide whether the evidence is sufficient for proceeding with the trial, on the charges specified in the report.

KINGSTON, November 14th.
The national agitation in Jamaica has reached a very serious and critical stage, while the colony is united against the Government, and the indignation of every class and creed and color is poured forth in a violent speech in public meetings held in every township in the colony. Lord Kimberley is denounced at public meetings, in consequence of the peremptory order he sent the Government to pack the Legislative Council, in order to pass a vote for the payment of half the Florence damages and costs by the colony.

HALIFAX, November 22nd.
Investigation as to the poor asylum disaster is finished. The jury found the fire accidental, and censures the asylum authorities for want of forethought in not providing for escape of the helpless inmates in the ward at the top of the building.

The Porte is trying to ascertain the views of Germany on the Egyptian and Tunis question. Bismarck has advised the Porte to remain quiet, the time is inopportune for raising the question of supporting Turkey.

HAIR DRESSING SALOON HONGKONG HOTEL. W. P. MOORE begs to inform the Gentlemen of Hongkong and Visitors that he has reduced the price of Hair-Cutting to 50 cents. Having now in his employ three competent Assistants who are always in attendance, he guarantees to execute this class of work, in all its branches, with a perfection which cannot be equalled in any part of the world.

Hair-Cutting, 50 Cents. Shampooing, 25 Cents. Shaving, 25 Cents. Trimming Beards, 25 Cents. MONTHLY CUSTOMERS TAKEN AT REDUCED RATES.

HAZARD MOST CAREFULLY RE-SET. Mr. Moore begs to recommend his GOGO SHAMPOO WASH to the public as unrivalled by any preparation ever produced for promoting the growth of the hair. The basis of this compound is made of soap root, the natives of the Philippine Islands never use anything else for washing their hair; they are never found bald, and it is quite common to see the females with hair from 5 to 6 feet long. By constantly using this Shampoo Wash as directed, you will find the hair growing thicker and longer.

THE PROPRIETOR offers the Wash to the public entirely confident that, by its restorative properties, it will without fail arrest the falling hair. It completely eradicates scurf, dandruff, and cures all diseases of the scalp. It does not contain any poisonous drugs. By its cooling properties it always refreshing and gives to the scalp, which is the great cause of people losing their hair.

Mr. Moore has succeeded in being able to put this Commercial.

THIS DAY.

Business in the Share Market is still the reverse of brisk. Banks are weaker with sellers at 105 premium. Yangtze Insurance are very firm and are wanted at 85, a rise of 5 since yesterday; no transfers at the increased rate have come to our notice. Chinese Insurances are in request at 232, but holders do not seem inclined to part with that figure. Docks are in rather better odour and are wanted at 53 premium. Small sales of Luzons have been put through at quotation, and there are still sellers at the rate. Nothing in other stocks requires special comment.

4 o'clock p.m.

No other business has come under our notice excepting a small transaction in Docks at 55 for the end of January. There are still sellers of the stock on these terms.
